Dr. Gary P. Rupp

Dr. Gary P. Rupp enjoyed a distinguished career in the area of veterinary medicine and beef cattle reproduction. He served as the director of the University of Nebraska's Great Plains Veterinary Educational Center since its inception in 1988 until his retirement in 2010.

Dr. Rupp is actively involved in the development and support of the Cow Calf Computerized Herd Health-Management Record System. He has also implemented a certification program for veterinary practitioners, the Beef Cattle Production Management Series and serves as mentor for the course. In 2005, Dr. Rupp received the Merial Excellence in Preventative Medicine Beef Award.

To honor Dr. Rupp's many accomplishments and his esteemed leadership, the University of Nebraska Foundation, the School of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences and the beef industry have created the Dr. Gary P. Rupp Beef Cattle Production Management Scholarship.

Dr. Gary P. Rupp Beef Cattle Production Management Scholarship

Scholarship recipients will be Nebraska students enrolled in the School of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences with a demonstrated interest in beef animal production management. A selection committee appointed by the Director of the School of Veterinary Medicine and Biomedical Sciences will determine scholarship recipients.

Give to Support Veterinary Medicine at UNL

Approximately $25,000 has been donated to the Dr. Gary P. Rupp Beef Cattle Production Management Scholarship. Please consider adding to this total. Your gift is a valuable way to acknowledge Dr. Rupp's many accomplishments and represents a significant investment in the future of veterinary medicine students interested in pursuing careers in beef cattle production management.
